Committee Reports

Web Page Report (Phyllis Christensen)

The web page is still getting lots of hits. It works real well for our registration.

Classes (Kris Punke)

Agility class started on Thursday June 9th. Terese Barta is teaching the class and has 5 students. Puppy Kindergarten and Basic Obedience start on June 14th. Phyllis Christensen is teaching Puppy Kindergarten and has 7 students. Kris Punke is teaching Basic Obedience and has 4 students.

Tracking

We have permission to use a piece of property owned by Mullins Cheese for tracking practice. The piece of land is an open field about 40-50 acres. The question was asked if we should to pursue having a tracking match there. The comment was made that it would be better at the Mead, because of the shelter area. The Mead is putting up a new building and it would be nice to use it to get inside if we needed to. Cheryl is considering joining the Tracking Club of Wisconsin to find out more information.

Herding Match

Laurie's site isn't quite ready and is looking at October to hold a match.

The web page is still getting lots of hits. It works real well for our registration.

The suggestion was made to provide the humane societies with information about our website. Kris currently faxes flyers for classes to Vet clinics but not to humane societies. In the past a 3 fold brochure was made to give to vet clinics and humane societies. Jenny Clark has agreed to create a flyer to be handed out to the vet clinics and humane societies.

We have not gotten our Application yet. We discussed ways we can hold the trial to increase our obedience entries. It was suggested having a ring of Agility and a ring of Obedience at the same time. ## On the Lighter Side

DOG SHOWS IN HEAVEN

One day in heaven, Peter, Paul and John were standing around near the luxurious dog spas, watching the dogs happily laying around. "I'm certainly bored," said John. "Me too," Paul chimed in. Peter had an idea. "I know! Why don't we have a dog show?"

They all thought this sounded great, except for one small detail that Paul pointed out: "Who are we to compete against, Peter?" The trio pondered a moment, then Peter realized the answer: "We will call up Satan and invite him to the dog show. I mean, we have most of the dogs here in heaven, including all of the finest ones, the Best in Show and specialty winners, as well as all the beloved pets and great performers. Satan just has the spoiled, difficult and mean dogs. We're certain to win!"

And so the trio dialed up Satan on the Other Realm Communication Line and invited him to their dog show. Satan laughed and asked why they wanted to be humiliated like that, claiming he would certainly beat them.

Peter, Paul and John didn't understand. "What do you mean?" Peter asked. "We have all of the finest champion dogs in heaven. How could you possibly beat us?"

Satan paused a moment and laughed and said. .... "Have you forgotten so soon, gentlemen? I have all the judges!"
