Voting for Inside vs Outside at the Labor Day trial in 2006.

Beth Knotts will be taking votes from the members through the newsletter on whether to hold the Jumpers with Weaves inside or outside for the Labor Day Trial in 2006. Please email or call Beth Knotts with your choice.

Christmas Party

No volunteers came forward to coordinate the Christmas Party. Everyone seemed to like it at Two's Company. Laurie will check with VerJean about coordinating the party.

UKC Introduction Class

Beth would like to hold a 4-week class prior to the UKC trial. It would be open to members that previously taken agility classes and would familiarize members to the Agility II equipment.

Wall of Fame

We have a hammer and nails available. Please bring in your 8 x 10 pictures of your dogs to display on the wall of fame.

Nominating Committee

A nominating committee will need to be created at the November meeting. If you anyone is interested in being on the nominating committee to recruit vacancies in the officer and board positions please contact Laurie Bandy.

BRAGS!

Kathy Schuh reports that Brodie qualified in obedience (Novice B) at his first trial at the Manitowoc cluster on Sept 16.

Kathy also reports that Gunner Q'd in Ex Std at the WRKC agility trial on Friday. Then on Sunday, he took her right down to the wire in his last run of the day. He needed 11 points to get his MACH and he got exactly the 11 points. Kathy says "it was an AWESOME feeling and I am glad that he was able to get this MACH at Camp Bandy. What better place to get it than there!!". CONGRATS Kathy and Gunner. Not to forget Kirby and Brodie, they both qualified in Ex JWW on Sunday. At Cambridge on Oct 7 -9, Gunner Q'd in Exc Std with a 4th place on Friday. On Saturday, he double Q'd and on Sunday, he qualified in Ex Std again with a 2nd place finish. At the same trial on Friday, Kirby took a 2nd place in Ex JWW and on Saturday he took a 3rd in JWW.

Lori Whitney reports that Chocolate Lab "Keeper" earned her Excellent B rally title on Oct 22nd at the Timber Ridge trial at Camp Bandy. Lori and Keeper plan to keep going for the RAE title. Way to go Lori and Keeper!
